Office Action Summary	Application No. 10/789,294	Applicant(s) PIAGET ET AL.
	Examiner Steve R. Crow	Art Unit 3764

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-5,24,36-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yoshimura (2001/0016542).

Yoshimura (2001/0016542) discloses a treadmill/stepper type exercise device having first and second treadles 81-82 each having an endless belt and each pivotally attached to the frame. Yoshimura (2001/0016542) discloses several embodiments having interconnection means. Figures 5(a-c) show spring resistors 84 which are operatively coupled with the interconnection means 83-84 as shown in figures 5(a-c), the interconnection means having two rocker assemblies.

As to claim 3, note the rocker arms 84 of Figure 5(b) each having pivot axes.

3. Claims 1-5,24,36-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kuo (6461279).
4. Kuo discloses a treadmill/stepper type exercise device having first and second treadles 23 each having an endless belt and each pivotally attached to the frame. Note the resistance means 17 which are operatively connected to the interconnection assembly.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claim 38 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kuo (279) in view of Piaget et al (5626539).

5. Piaget et al (5626539) teaches connecting treadle resistors below the treadles. In view of this teaching, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to connect the Kuo resistance means form below the treadles as opposed to above the treadles.

3. Claim 38 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yoshimura (2001/0016542) in view of Piaget et al (5626539).

6. Piaget et al (5626539) teaches connecting treadle resistors below the treadles. In view of this teaching, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to connect the Yoshimura (2001/0016542) resistance means form below the treadles as opposed to above the treadles.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 2/19/08 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

5. The amendment to the claims adding that the treadles " pivot at the rear thereof " barely limits the claims. Kuo and Yoshimura (2001/0016542) each have treadles which are pivotally connected to the frame at one end. This end is considered to be the rear portion thereof.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 6,19-20 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims./Steve R Crow/

8. Primary Examiner, Art Unit 3764

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL.

See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
